

COMMENTS TO FDA

TABLE OF CONTENTS

VOLUME I: LEGAL/JURISDICTION

- A. FDA Has No Jurisdiction Over Any Brand of Cigarettes Absent Therapeutic Or Pharmacological Claims By Their Manufacturer
- B. FDA's Assertion of Jurisdiction Over All Cigarettes Is an Unconstitutional Usurpation of Powers Congress Has Reserved to Itself

VOLUME II: A PRODUCT IS A DRUG OR DEVICE UNDER THE FDCA BASED SOLELY ON ITS INTENDED USE

- A. Claims That A Product Affects the Structure or Function of the Body Must Address Significant Effects for Medical Purposes
- B. "Intended To" and "Intended Use" Are Determined By the Manufacturer's Marketing Claims
- C. FDA Relies On An Erroneous Legal Standard and Legally Irrelevant Information In An Effort To Support Its Assertion Of Jurisdiction

VOLUME III: FDA'S "FINDINGS" DO NOT ESTABLISH THAT
NICOTINE IS INTENDED FOR USE AS A
DRUG OR THAT CIGARETTES ARE INTENDED
FOR USE AS MEDICAL DEVICES -- PART 1

- A. Introduction
- B. The Pharmacological Effects of Nicotine Do Not Justify FDA's Assertion of Jurisdiction
- C. Consumers Do Not Smoke Cigarettes "Nearly Exclusively" For The Pharmacological Effects Of Nicotine
- D. Nicotine's Contributions To The Flavor Of Cigarette Smoke
- E. There Are No Data To Support FDA's Position That The Levels of Nicotine In Commercial Cigarettes Cause "Addiction"

VOLUME IV: FDA'S "FINDINGS" DO NOT ESTABLISH THAT NICOTINE IS INTENDED FOR THERAPEUTIC
 USE OR THAT CIGARETTES ARE INTENDED
 FOR USE AS MEDICAL DEVICES -- PART 2

- A. Introduction
- B. The Tobacco Industry's Agricultural And Manufacturing Practices Do Not Establish
 "Intended Use"

VOLUME V: CIGARETTES ARE NOT "DEVICES" OR "RESTRICTED DEVICES"

- A. Cigarettes Are Not "Devices" Within The Meaning Of The FDCA
- B. Cigarettes Are Not "Restricted Devices"
 Within The Meaning Of The FDCA, Cannot Be Regulated As "Restricted Devices" And The Proposed Restrictions Exceed FDA's Authority
 Over Such Devices
